

Structures: Citizenship

2 Markers:

- Reasons - No additional Information

EG:

Suggest two reasons why schools in the UK teach about festivals celebrated by different religions?

1. Learning about other communities will increase community cohesion.
2. Creates Equality Amongst different cultures

2/2

Would get the same marks as:

Suggest two reasons why schools in the UK teach about festivals celebrated by different religions?

1. One reason why schools in the UK teach about festivals celebrated by different religions is learning about other communities will increase community cohesion.
2. Another reason why schools in the UK teach about festivals celebrated by different religions is creates Equality Amongst different cultures

2/2

1 Markers:

- Cross the correct box
- Edexcel usually make there multiple choice questions quiet easy, Process of elimination always works. For example it may ask you which of the following countries are apart of the commonwealth, You may not completely know all commonwealth countries but think of countries with commonwealth ties,

Eg: India - British Tea Company

Eg: Australia - United Kingdom Flag in the Flag

4 Markers:

- Reason
- Evidence/Support

EG:

Explain two key stages of the process which a bill in Parliament goes through in order to become a law.

The First Reading, In this, the bills title is read out and its overview, no debates take place.

The Report Stage, the Committee report and the whole House has a chance to comment.

4/4