Source A: From the diary of B.C. Jones, 1915-16. Jones served with the Royal Field Artillery in France from the start of the war until he was wounded in 1915.

7 December. A German shell hit the dugout of our telephone pit. I remembered no more until I woke up in Bethune Casualty Clearing Station Number 33, where I find I have been severely wounded. Left hand blown off, left hand ripped up 12 inches. Scalp wound 6 inches, wound on over side of knee (left) 5 inches.

9 December. Operation on upper arm for gangrene (successful).

12 December. I remain here for 8 days then removed to St Omer by hospital barge, very comfortable. I am then removed by train to Étaples. I am sent to England on the Hospital Ship. Return to Nottingham where I am in bed until the end of February.

3 June 1916. I am eventually transferred to Brighton where I am operated on and re-amputated. Awaiting Roehampton for artificial limb.

Source B: A photograph taken by a British newspaper in 1916 of a member of FANY writing taking notes about a soldier injured by an artillery explosion.
